PROSECUTOR ZACH WEIGHT ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR FRANKLIN COUNTY STATE'S ATTORNEY

Zach Weight announces that he will be seeking the Office of Franklin County State's Attorney.

"I am proud to announce today my campaign for Franklin County State's Attorney. As State's Attorney, I will pursue an agenda that supports victims, promotes public safety, and holds criminals accountable. Through my tenure as the Governor's Special Prosecutor for the Accountability Court, I have proven how a focused, driven approach within the criminal justice system can address systemic issues while promoting public safety. I am excited to bring this dedicated focus on victim support, public safety, and accountability to the people of Franklin County."

A seasoned criminal lawyer with over 12 years of experience, Zach is currently a Deputy State's Attorney in Washington County. His commitment to innovative justice was recently highlighted during his tenure as the Governor's Special Prosecutor for the Chittenden County Accountability Court (October 2025 - February 2026). He is a 2012 graduate of Vermont Law School.
